Why do foreclosed properties sit and sit, and then all come up for sale at once? Many factors behind the scenes contribute to the roller-coaster of active listing prices in Oakwood. Talk to an agent who knows and can explain. I continue to show and sell and invest and work in your neighborhood. Count on me as a trusted partner for any important sale or purchase (I know they are ALL important).

Call or email me to find out how to make your next move go smoothly!
